Overview
Islam has been a vital force for more than 1400 years. Presently, it is the basis of life, belief and culture of more than 23% of world’s population according to 2010 Pew report. Through examination of selected texts, students’ academic writings, and class discussions, this course explores Islam and Muslim history and historiography from pre-Islamic era to the decline of the Ottoman Empire. It includes survey of intellectual, political, social, economic, and cultural developments and processes that shaped various Muslim communities (these are, Arabs, Persians or Iranians, Turkish, Chinese, Africans, South Asians or Indians, and Southeast Asians or Malays).

Objectives
- When asked what was the speed of sound Albert Einstein said: "I do not carry such information in my mind since it is readily available in books. The value of an education is not the learning of many facts but the training of the mind to think."¹ This course is designed to train the minds of students to think and to think critically by letting them express their thoughts freely and be guided by the instructor regarding the assigned text. This class is not about short-term memorization of facts that enable students pass quizzes and seatwork.
- To familiarize students of scholarly and academic sources (peer-reviewed journal articles, monographs, book chapters, edited volumes, and encyclopedic essays published by top and reputable publishers). Thus avoiding journalistic sources such as magazines, editorial news, columns, op-ed, letters, position and policy papers, Wiki articles and various internet sources, among others, written by pseudo-scholars, frequent TV/media commentators, bloggers, polemicists, propagandists, etc.
- Papers (these are, think piece, critical essay, abstract proposal, and research essay) serve as intellectual measurement of student skills in reading comprehension (their understanding of the text) and academic writing capability.
- Train to write proper abstract proposals and efficient delivery of paper presentation including discussing another one’s paper in an academic conference setting.

To be more specific, students are expected to:
- Get acquainted with concepts and trends in Muslim history and Islamic historiography.
- Acquire necessary intellectual stamina on discourses and debates emphasized by texts.
- Trace the development of Muslim societies in its historical and spiritual characters.
- Identify the connections from pre-Modern to Modern Muslim communities.
- Engage with historical themes and events on how they relate to contemporary times.
- Develop students’ skills in academic writings through their examination of the selected reading materials.

Requirements
The course’s pedagogy requires extensive reading skills, contemplation and understanding of the text(s) assigned for that particular meeting. Lectures, to some extent, will aid you but it is up to your determination and passion to do research which will help you pass the course. This is an intensive research-driven course that entails the following requirements:

Diagnostic Test: Constitute 3 to 5-sentence summary and 3 to 5-sentence analysis of a text.
Think Piece: Constitute 150-word analysis of one assigned text.
Critical Essay: Constitute 200-word answer to one paradigmatic question.
Abstract Proposal: A brief 250-word summary/in-dept analysis that constitutes the issue (research problem and question), framework (theoretical/conceptual), method(s), and hypothetical proposition of your research essay.
Research Essay: The 750-word research essay is divided into 150-word introduction, 525-word body, and 75-word conclusion. See details below.

Academic Conference Presentation: Composed of 4 paper presenters (serving also as discussants) and 1 chair. Division of time depends on the number of students per section within 2-day duration. Paper presenter highlights the kernel of his/her paper within a limited time. Discussant assesses the paper and raises critical points and inquiries. Randomly selected chair moderates and serves as timer of the panel.

Introduction of Research Essay
- This may have one heading and one up to two subheadings depending on your prescribed division. The word ‘introduction’ must be omitted. This constitutes 150 words only.
- This has two parts: (1) the abstract, and (2) review of related literature.
- The abstract includes overall thesis statement, research problem, research question(s), theories and methods to be used, and your main hypothesis.
- Thesis statement is “a short statement, usually one sentence, that summarizes the main point or claim of an essay, research paper, etc., and is developed, supported, and explained in the text by means of examples and evidence.” (See http://www.dictionary.com/browse/thesis-statement)
- “A research problem is a definite or clear expression [statement] about an area of concern, a condition to be improved upon, a difficulty to be eliminated, or a troubling question that exists in scholarly literature, in theory, or within existing practice that points to a need for meaningful understanding and deliberate investigation. A research problem does not state how to do something, offer a vague or broad proposition, or present a value question.” [See http://libguides.usc.edu/writingguide/introduction/researchproblem or cite Bryman, Alan. “The Research Question in Social Research: What is its Role?” International Journal of Social Research Methodology 10 (2007): 5-20.]
- “A research question is an answerable inquiry into a specific concern or issue. It is the initial step in a research project. The 'initial step' means after you have an idea of what you want to study, the research question is the first active step in the research project.” Ensure that it is not too broad or too narrow. (See http://study.com/academy/lesson-writing-research-questions-purpose-examples.html)
- Specify theories in Islamic Studies you will use and explain how it will benefit your research essay. You may utilize eclectic approach or single theoretical understanding. If you are confident you can create your own theory, but the difficulty is that you have to provide its explanatory power and empirical applicability.
- You may use multiple research methods both in traditional (pre-modern) and contemporary (modern) studies in Islam. Selected references are:

This also include three pieces of advice from:

Continuation of Introduction of Research Essay

- Hypothesis is “an idea or explanation for something that is based on known facts but has not yet been proven.” (See http://dictionary.cambridge.org/us/dictionary/english/hypothesis)
- “A literature review is an evaluative report of studies found in the literature related to your selected area. The review should describe, summarize, evaluate and clarify this literature. It should give a theoretical basis for the research and help you determine the nature of your own research. Select a limited number of works that are central to your area rather than trying to collect a large number of works that are not as closely connected to your topic area.” You may cite one or two related review of literature. (See http://library.queensu.ca/webedu/grad/Purpose_of_the_Literature_Review.pdf)

- After you have sufficiently supplied the parts of introduction, you must put connecting independent clauses that will guide and lead the reader to the next section of your research essay. “An independent clause is a group of words that contains a subject and verb and expresses a complete thought.” (See https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/598/01/)

Body of Research Essay
- It is divided into two parts: (1) presentation of data and/or findings, and (2) providing your own analyses. The word ‘body’ must be omitted. This is the biggest part of your research essay.
- This may have two headings and two up to four subheadings depending on your prescribed division.
- Presenting data is the way the researcher/writer organize and communicate information using selected methods and with the guidance of your chosen (or invented) theories. Each data must deliberately connect or relate to your abstract which encompasses thesis statement, research problem, question(s), and your hypothesis. Two to three data suffices the requirements for this particular research essay.
- After data presentation, you will then provide your thorough analyses. This part must not have in-text citations because this is your overall contribution to the knowledge or literature of your selected research issue or topic. Readers expect to read your personal thoughts, understandings, interpretations, assessments, and detailed examinations of each data presented.
- After you have sufficiently supplied the parts of the body and somehow persuaded the readers, you must put connecting independent clauses that will guide and lead the reader to the next section of your research essay.

Conclusion of Research Essay
- This is the shortest part of your research essay. The length is 75 words only. It only has one heading depending on what words or phrases strikingly unique that are relevant to the totality of your essay.
- The first set of paragraphs comprised a summarized version of the introduction.
- The second set of paragraphs comprised a summarized version of the body.
- And, lastly, posit separated overarching (two-to-three) sentences that completely answers your research question(s) and if your hypothesis is correctly or incorrectly proven.

Instructions to Authors
Please take note that upon completion, proofread your work, and let others proofread it so as to avoid grammatical errors. Please remember that references are aligned in the left margin, and not in the center. In writing your research essay, students must oblige to the following instructions:
- Use 12-point font ‘Times New Roman’.
- Always use two hard returns at the end of a paragraph, rather than indenting the first line of a new paragraph.
- Do not use any hyphenation or justification program, but allow your software to make automatic word-wraps without hyphenation (you should insert hyphens only in words that must be hyphenated).
- Papers must be delivered in double-spaced format, including the reference list.
- All pages must be numbered consecutively, from beginning to end.
- Microsoft Word is the preferred package: Only text files in .doc or .docx are acceptable.
- Provide a word count of your paper upon submission or state it on the upper left of your paper.
- Endnotes are preferred. They should be entered into your paper using the Word note function rather than numbered text at the end of the document. Not only does this allow the processing of the notes more accurately and efficiently, it also ensures that the numbering is consistent. In addition, the dedicated reference list must not be endnotes containing references. The reason is that if a referenced work appears in a dedicated reference section the instructor can create direct links to the works cited anywhere your text appears online. This is not possible with note references. Endnotes must be discursive notes that simply expand on the text.
- As much as possible please avoid tables, figures, boxes or artworks unless they are extremely necessary in supporting your argument.
- Please note that it is not permitted to accept separate font files consisting of special characters (e.g. Arabic, Persian, Bahasa, Urdu, Ottoman or Turkish). Please provide a simple transliteration of foreign words, for example, use ‘sharia’ instead of ‘sharīʿah’.
- Use US spelling style. For US spelling, Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary or Webster’s Third New International Dictionary are the standard references.
- For both in-text citations and reference list, the Harvard Referencing is much preferred. Please see this free tool at https://www.citethisforme.com/harvard-referencing
- Headings and subheadings of the whole research essay complements one another and that there should be a flow of thought throughout the paper. For example:

Wherefore art thou Nation-State, clanged by Muslim Governance?

The Problematique
Causational Predicament
Exploration of Competing Works

Withered Nation-State
The Derivation
Territorial Sovereignty

Flourished Muslim Governance
The Derivation
A Sovereign Moral

Consequential Parity of both Polities
Analyzing Derivations
Parity of Moral and Territorial Sovereigns

Conclusion

As you can see in the outline, the introduction is the ‘problematique’, the first part of the body is its presented data on ‘withered nation-state’ and ‘flourished Muslim governance’, while the second part of the body is analyses (that is, ‘consequential parity…’). And, of course the conclusion.
Very Important! On PLAGIARISM
It is defined, according to Black’s Law Dictionary (2nd Edition), “the act of appropriating the literary composition of another, or parts or passages of his writings, or the ideas or language of the same, and passing them off as the product of one’s own mind.” See: http://thelawdictionary.org/plagiarism/

In short, it is an intellectual thievery. See http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml for more academic details. In Philippine laws, it is a violation of Republic Act No. 8293 (Intellectual Property Code of the Philippines) and Republic Act 10175 (Cybercrime Prevention Act of 2012). When you plagiarized, you will be punishable by:

A. Imprisonment of one (1) year to three (3) years plus a fine ranging from Fifty thousand pesos (P50,000) to One hundred fifty thousand pesos (P150,000) for the first offense;
B. Imprisonment of three (3) years and one (1) day to six (6) years plus a fine ranging from One hundred fifty thousand pesos (P150,000) to Five hundred thousand pesos (P500,000) for the second offense;
C. Imprisonment of six (6) years and one (1) day to nine (9) years plus a fine ranging from five hundred thousand pesos (P500,000) to one million five hundred thousand pesos (P1,500,000) for the third and subsequent offenses.

In most Philippine universities, the disciplinary sanctions may include:
1st offense – Failing grade in the examination/quiz concerned
2nd offense – Failing grade in the subject concerned
3rd offense – Two-week suspension
4th offense – Dismissal

Rubric for Assessing Critical Essay, Think Piece, and Diagnostic Test
80 points – Significant Contribution, Originality and Critical Content Analysis
20 points – Grammar, Well-Organized Academic Writing Style, Coherency, and Clarity

Rubric for Assessing Academic Conference Presentation
90 points – Efficient and clear delivery of research essay
10 points – Sound answers to questions posited by discussant and fellow colleagues

Rubric for Assessing Research Essay and Abstract Proposal
75 points – Significant Contribution, Originality and Critical Content Analysis
15 points – Appropriate & Relevant Literature Review, and Correct Citations and References
10 points – Grammar, Well-Organized Academic Writing Style, Coherency, and Clarity

A+ research essay (90 to 100 points)
Contribution has originality and not mere repetition of previous works. Thesis is sound and clear with coherent flow of thought throughout the essay. Correct usage of grammar, citations and references.

B+ research essay (80 to 89 points)
Contribution has somewhat original with relatively well-organized academic writing style. References are appropriate for the topic. Occasional grammar errors, most probably prepositions, spellings, and articles.

C+ research essay (70 to 79 points)
Partial original contribution with relatively low presentation of evidence, sources, and logical arguments. Frequent incorrect usage of grammar, citations and references. Limited coherent presentation of ideas and substance.

D+ research essay (60 to 69 points)
Limited presentation of ideas, arguments and evidence. Citations are ineffective and inappropriate. Most frequent incorrect usage of grammar and references. Poor academic writing style, e.g., poorly-structured sentences with basic vocabulary.

Failing research essay (below 60 points)
Irrelevant information and incomprehensible evidence and sources are presented. Citations are very ineffective and inappropriate. Inadequate knowledge of grammar. No coherency throughout the essay.

Specific Class Instructions
There will be 10-minute reporting and 15-minute discussion per assigned text as part of your class participation. Assigning a text is alphabetically arranged. If in urgent case you cannot attend the class and you are assigned to report during that week, then, you are obliged to email everyone a week ahead. Failing to do so will negatively affect your class participation’s grade.
Food is allowed throughout the meeting, but this depend on university/institute policy. Egregious chatting, consistent use of gadgets and internet that are irrelevant to the class (except documenting the discussion by notetaking and use of helpful websites for checking meanings of words and terminologies), and not paying attention are impermissible.

Structure and References

Please remember that submissions of requirements are in the following chronological weeks:
diagnostic test (week 1), think piece (week 4), abstract proposal (week 6), critical essay (week 9), drafted research essay (week 13), academic conference presentation (weeks 15 and 16), and finalized research essay (week 16).

Week 1: Course orientation and submission of diagnostic test (summarizing a text to assessed student’s reading comprehension and writing capability)

Week 2: Historical sources, social science approaches and historiographical methodologies

Week 3: Pre-Islamic era

Week 4: The Emergence of Islam

Week 5: The Prophet’s time

Week 6: Age of Caliphalates

Week 7: Islam in Iran/Persia

Week 8: Islam in Europe/Spain

Week 9: Islam in India/South Asia

570-632 Muhammad
570  Traditional date for Muhammad’s birth
595  Muhammad marries Khadija
610  First Revelation
622  Hijra and Year One of the Islamic Calendar
624  The Battle of Badr – Muslims defeat the Quraysh
630  Pilgrimage to Mecca
632  According to tradition, final pilgrimage; Muhammad’s death.

632-661 "Righteous Caliphs"
632-633 Abu Bakr
634-644 Umar
644-656 Uthman
656-661 "Caliphate of Ali," better characterized as 1st Civil War
656  Battle of the Camel
657  Conflict at Siffin settled through arbitration

661-750 Umayyad Dynasty
680  Death of Muhammad's grandson Husayn; start of classical Shi’ism
697  Islamicate reforms in coinage, government
711 Muslims reach Spain and the Indus River in what is now Pakistan

750-1258 Abbasid Caliphate
762 Founding of Baghdad
813-833 Al-Ma’mun (AH 198-215)

By the 10th Century the Caliph is no longer a unified political leader; separate Caliphates under various religious leaders appear.

909 Fatimids (Shi‘ite faction) proclaim Caliphate in Tunisia
929 Umayyad Abd al-Rahman III proclaims himself Caliph in Spain
945 Buyids enter Baghdad, leader proclaimed Amir al-Umara Mu’izz al-Dawla.
969 Founding of Cairo by Fatimids
971 Al-Azhar (university) founded in Cairo
1050 Traditional conversion to Islam of Mandingo King in Mali (in Africa)
1055 Seljuks enter Baghdad, ending Buyid dynasty.
1071 Battle of Manzikert; Seljuk Turks begin to enter Anatolia (modern day Turkey)-also take power in Jerusalem
1085 Fall of Toledo – Catholics retake Spain
1099 Catholic Crusaders capture Jerusalem
1175-1203 Muhammad Ghori expands Islamic rule in India
1171 Saladin ends Fatimid Dynasty.
1187 Battle of Hittin; Muslims soon retake Jerusalem

Latter Middle Ages
1250 Mamluk Sultanate established in Egypt
1258 Mongols conquer Baghdad; brief introduction of Buddhism in Persia
1291 End of Christian control of Acre, return of Islam to dominance throughout the Holy Land
Conversion of Il-Khan to Islam; Islam once again dominant in Persia
1345 First Ottoman campaigns in Europe:
1389 1st Battle of Kosovo.

Ottoman Rise and Fall, “Gunpowder Empires”
1453 Muhammad II conquers Constantinople for the Ottomans
1492 Muslims expelled from Spain
1517 Ottomans conquer Egypt
1575 Height of Ottoman Empire, which now includes parts of Asia, Europe, and Africa
1699 Treaty of Carlewitz
1700 Rise of Wahhabi movement to reform Islam (separatist Sunni sect)

The Modern Era
1798 Napoleon invades Egypt (Acre 1799. Expelled in 1801 by combined Ottoman and British troops).
1805 Muhammad Ali establishes an independent Islamic state in Egypt
1917 Ottoman Empire ends after World War I
1924 Caliphate abolished in Turkey (severing “last link” to the divine polity founded by Muhammad); Muslim Brotherhood founded (Sunni reform movement)
1979 (Hijra Year 1400), Islamic (Shi’ite) Revolution in Iran led by Ayatollah Khomeini; Russian invasion of Afghanistan, Sadat’s Peace Plan, (1978: Orientalism)
